

Eaton's Airflex field service engineering

Lower maintenance costs. Decrease capital expenditure. Reduce downtime.

Markets served

- Oil and Gas
 - Drawworks
- Mining and Mineral Processing
 - Draglines and Shovels
 - Grinding Mills
- Marine
 - Propulsion
 - Winches
- General Industry
 - Can making
 - Paper Mills
 - Steel processing
 - Dynamometers

Installation and service capabilities

Installation

Factory trained Field Service Engineers, with over 20 years experience, provide technical guidance to ensure installation, alignment and start-up requirements for clutches and brakes meet end-user specifications.

Service repair

Technical support and supervision to ensure efficient maintenance techniques and repairs to meet factory specifications.

Training

Application specific, hands on operation and maintenance training for local maintenance personnel to ensure proper inspection, repair and operating techniques.

For more information or to set up a service support, contact Eaton Airflex at (216) 281-2211 or AirflexcustomerService@Eaton.com